Dear Judge Gerber:

I am respectfully requesting additional time to send the court by regular mail a copy of a letter from me rejecting Defendant Sur-Reply and to amend my Affidavit in Opposition to Defendant Sur-Reply.

The reason why I am asking for additional time is I am not sure if what I have already sent you is sufficient and I found a typographical error in paragraph 18.

Paragraph 18 should read: "Defendant Sur-Reply is untimely and should not even be considered, especially given the fact that Defendant would have to take leave of the court in order for the court to consider his Sur-Reply as per attorney that Plaintiff spoke with."

In addition there is nothing in the CPLR that would allow a Sur-Reply

Sincerely,

Dave Shostack

RE: Dave Shostack v. Motors Liquidations Et Al.
Case No.: 09-50026 (REG)

Dear Judge Gerber:

I am rejecting the Defendant's Sur-Reply because it is untimely and should not even be considered, especially given the fact that Defendant would have to take leave of the court in order for the court to consider his Sur-Reply as per attorney that Plaintiff spoke with.

There is nothing in the CPLR that allows for this.

Sincerely,
